Hard Style Forms

These forms must capture the essence of classic martial arts movements, showcasing the traditional hand and kicking techniques, stances and movement. Emphasis is placed on execution of technique, application of technique, balance, speed, power, solid stances and focus. Forms are scored solely on the above criteria. Adaptation of a form is acceptable, as long as the movements added are traditional in nature.

Novice Hard Style

These Sections are open to competitors who are UNDER 12 yrs of age and 4TH KYU (Purple belt) or below with NO MORE than 18 Months Training experience. In ADDITION to this they must NOT have medalled in ANY TOURNAMENT WHATSOEVER. Any competitor who enters these sections knowingly in breach of the rules will be disqualified from the NOVICE section but WILL be offered a place in the appropriate section.

Commentary: The WKC is a world championships. We expect to see many variations of traditional forms. As long as a competitor only does traditional moves and not multiple kicks or spin kicking combinations, then they will be scored on the execution of the form. Kiaa shouts are to be in keeping with the traditional teachings and should not exceed the maximum allowed in your style. Any excessive shouts will be ignored and could result in half a point (0.5 of a point) being deducted.

There has been a great deal of debate among reputable martial artists regarding whether a form or series of moves are outside of the bounds of the Traditional Division. Because the W.K.C. is open to all styles and schools around the world and from which judges are utilized, each competitor must make his or her own decision regarding whether to include movements, which might be objectionable for the Traditional Division having read the W.K.C. rules.

Korean Style Forms

These forms must capture the essence of Korean style patterns. Only traditional moves will be allowed. Adaption of traditional forms will be allowed if the moves are traditional in nature.

Commentary: In this division we will see versions of Korean style patterns from ITF, WTF, Tang Soo Do and other Korean based martial arts. The height of the kick is up to the individual competitor. However judges are looking for good technique, power and focus on all techniques. Therefore kicks are scored on technique and not the height.

Chinese Style Forms

These forms must capture the essence of Chinese style martial arts. The two basic arts will be kung fu and wushu. Emphasis is placed on traditional criteria of good flowing techniques that demonstrate balance, speed, focus and power.

Commentary: This is not a free style division. Gymnastic type moves are permissible, provided that they are practical and within the style of wushu.

Free Style Forms

The Freestyle forms division includes contemporary martial techniques that have evolved over the past 30 years. These techniques may be added to a traditional form or the form may be devised in its entirety by the competitor. Only techniques which originated from the martial arts can be used. Spinning kicks, jump kicks, flying kicks, multiple kicks, and splits and spinning hand techniques can be used. No gymnastic moves are allowed. No martial arts move originating from gymnastics can be used. Any competitor including such techniques will be in breach of said rules and will receive a ZERO score as it has been a conscious decision to include techniques outside the categories scope. If the competitor notifies the judges PRIOR to commencing their kata they WILL be offered the opportunity to enter the section that allows the techniques not covered in this section.
